To our valued Customers,

We understand that Performance Engineering Group is essential to our customers businesses, including those that provide urgent services to the community. Over the past few weeks, we have taken precautionary measures recommended by the CDC to help prevent the spread of the virus.

We continue to monitor the latest information and will be following protective measures recommended by the national and local public health authorities including hand washing, social distancing and disinfected work areas. If you have any questions, please feel free to call us.

Sincerely,

Your Performance Engineering Team
